

CHARTERED ACCOUNTANTS
AUSTRALIA + NEW ZEALAND

1 CPD Hour
Wellington Tax Special Interest Group

The Bonfire of the Charities

HIGHLIGHTS:

A discussion of some recent developments in NZ charities law and practice, including:

- Advocacy by charities (The family First decision)
- Social housing charities
- Charities and sport (the Swimming New Zealand decision)
- The practical impact of the National Council of Women decision, and
- Options for deregistered charities

WHY ATTEND:

Charities are currently undergoing a period of significant change. All involved or likely to be involved with charities, whether in a professional or private capacity, should be familiar with these developments.

INTENDED FOR:

Chartered Accountants and lawyers working in, or involved in giving advice to charities and not for profit organisations.

PRESENTERS:

Sue Barker, Director, Sue Barker Charities Law

Sue is the director of Sue Barker Charities Law, a boutique law firm based in Wellington specialising in charities law and public tax law. In 2013, Sue Barker Charities Law was voted New Zealand's Boutique Law Firm of the Year at the New Zealand Law Awards. Sue has published a number of articles relating to charitable sector issues, and is co-author of the text, The Law and Practice of Charities in New Zealand.

VENUE:

Chartered Accountants House
Level 7, 50 Customhouse Quay
Wellington

DATE AND TIME:

Monday 27 July 2015

4.30 – 5.30pm (registrations from 4pm)
Drinks, nibbles and networking to follow presentation

PRICE:

FREE FOR TAX SIG SUBSCRIBERS – please email

sarah.richards@charteredaccountantsanz.com to register.

$50 Member

$60 Standard

All prices include GST